There should be a national level committee and in that committee all states must be represented . The representative must be elected from the states .Similarly there should be a committee at the state level with representatives from all the districts and again representatives elected from the districts .Further a Committee at the district level with representatives from the Tehsils

These committees must be constituted after voting.

1.City/Tehsil/Village/Block level committee

The members chosen from these will vote in the district committee

2. District committee

District Committee should elect state committee

3.State level Committee

State Level Committee should elect national level committee

4 National Committee

This would be like guidance committee and will on various issue in the interest of street vendors .

4. NASVI committee –Guidance Committee could also be the NASVI Executive committee and can be considered as the main committee or Director Body

In this street vendors from lowest level will be involved.

People will get a program for associating with organization

It will be easier to reach out to street vendors of the entire country. Representative will have position an will be responsible and accountable. Since election will be held representative in touch with street vendors. Street Vendors will also have the right to recall representative.
